

HEAVYWEIGHT NEWS

SARENS HAS REBRANDED

Sarens is pleased to reveal a refreshed look for our historic brand. Everything our clients have come to admire and trust about Sarens is still the same, as we stand proud as the global reference in crane rental, heavy lifting, and engineered transport.

Read full story

Sarens Replaces Rail Bridge In Tamines, Belgium

In late August, Sarens worked with client Franki to replace an old railway bridge in Tamines, Belgium. To do it, operators used a lattice boom crane and the twin barge Karel-Victor during a multi-stage operation.

Read full story

Sarens Nass Middle East (SNME) Is At The Forefront Of Industry Innovation

SNME boasts a project portfolio consisting of landmark developments throughout the Middle East and beyond, operating about 400 hydraulic and crawler cranes with up to 750-ton capacity.

Read full story

Sarens Assists With Emergency Bridge Repairs In Spain

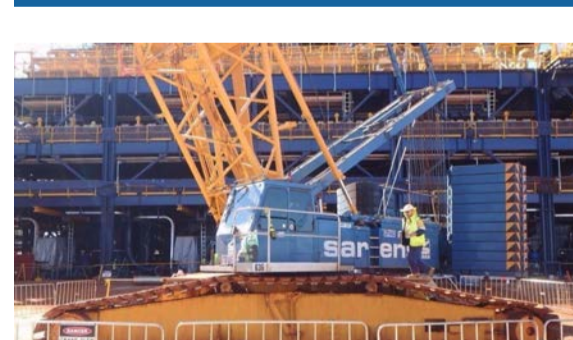

From August through September, Sarens has been helping with emergency bridge repairs on the M30 highway in Madrid, a project with a tight 44-day timeline.

Read full story

Sarens' Country Manager Of Australia Reflects On Opportunities In The Region

Luk Reolandts shares his insights on the opportunities and challenges in the region-as well as predictions for what's next.

Read full story

See Our Cranes for Sale!

AMERICAS
Breakbulk

17-19 OCT 2017 | HOUSTON

REGISTER NOW AT WWW.BREAKBULK.COM/BBAM2017

JOIN US

STAND

1317

sarens

