

HEAVYWEIGHT NEWS

Wind Energy and its Future with Sarens

Sarens works on hundreds of wind energy sites all over the world. We have the geographical flexibility and speciality to bring to our global clients the very best personnel and equipment in supporting the development of sustainable energy.

Watch the video here!

Sarens' CC8800-1 Performs First Reactor Lift at Fertiliser Plant

Sarens performed the first reactor lift on behalf of Ramagundam Fertilizers & Chemicals Limited (RFCL) using the 1.600-tonne capacity CC8800-1 crane.

Read full story.

Sarens Helps Raise New Manhattan Gate Bridge

Over the last several months, Sarens has been on site at the new Manhattan Gate Bridge project in Middlesbrough, UK, lifting essential portions of the bridge into place.

Read full story.

Sarens Opens New Depot at Hinkley Point

Sarens is proud to announce the opening of its newest crane depot near Hinkley Point in the UK. The depot is located in High Bridge, just a few kilometres from the Hinkley Point C (HPC) nuclear power station, currently one of the largest construction projects in Europe.

Read full story.

Sarens Assists with Roof Extension at Anoeta Football Stadium

Sarens was recently on site in San Sebastián, Spain, helping the Anoeta football stadium complete an important roof extension project. To make the roof extension possible, Sarens performed tandem lifts of four new steel truss girders along with four smaller cantilever trusses.

Read full story.

See Our Cranes for Sale!

YOU'RE INVITED!
EARLY HAPPY
HOUR AND MUNCHIES
WITH SARENS!

JOIN US!

WIND EXPO IN HAMBURG
WEDNESDAY,
26TH SEPTEMBER
13:00 TO 18:00
HOURS!

