

HEAVYWEIGHT NEWS

Sarens Honoured for Zwolle Ship Lift in the Netherlands

Sarens recently rose to the challenge of lifting and transporting a 244-tonne, 55-metre long ship's hull at the Talsma Shipyard in Franeker, the Netherlands.

Read full story

Sarens Installs Three 58-tonne Autoclaves in Kapelle-op-den-Bos, Belgium

When Etex Group, a building materials specialist in Kapelle-op-den-Bos, Belgium, needed to install three 58-tonne autoclaves, they turned to Sarens for heavy lifting expertise.

Read full story

Sarens Gives a Lift to one of the Largest Wind Farms in Serbia

Building on a reputation for heavy lifting expertise in the renewable energy sector, Sarens recently completed lifting services for 18 GE 2.5 MW wind turbines at the Kovacica Wind Farm in Serbia.

Read full story

Sarens Assembles Two High-Voltage Pylons for Brabo Project

Working on behalf of client Eiffage, Sarens used two CC-6800 cranes and several supporting telescopic cranes to erect a pair of 195-metre high-voltage pylons for the Brabo Project in Belgium.

Read full story

See Our Cranes for Sale!

