

HEAVYWEIGHT NEWS

A Close Look at the Anemometer: A Small Device With a Significant Impact

The anemometer tells us about the movement of the winds, warns us of gusts that would threaten a lift, and guides us to make the safest choices. Measuring the wind speed in 3-second gusts, the anemometer ensures that our cranes always stay within safe operating limits.

Read full story

Sarens Transports and Installs New 580-Metre Bridge in Norway

Sarens is proud to announce the installation of another new bridge, this time in Nord-Trøndelag, Norway, over the Beitstad sund between Steinkjer and Verran.

Read full story

Sarens Transports CMN HydroQuest Tidal Turbine

Sarens was entrusted with moving the turbine from the CMN workshop in Cherbourg, France and onto the modern installation vessel Normand Vision, operated by the Norwegian company Ocean Installer.

Read full story

Sarens Erects 91-Metre Flagpole in Atyrau, Kazakhstan

Sarens recently erected a 91-metre tall flagpole in Atyrau, Kazakhstan, on behalf of client Kastador LLP.

Read full story

See Our Cranes for Sale!

